Wade's Easter Walk, A Huge Success

From: Patrick Clemens

Wade's Easter Walk on March 23rd attracted 75 humans and 30 Furry friends in front of Roll Models bike shop to help raise funds for Roughneck Rescue. Team Wade raised 260lbs of dog food and $2,726.00 to help support our furry friends. The Easter bunny was there along with the balloon guy twisting balloons. Mayor of Allen Park, Gail McLeod was also in attendance. Everyone had a great time.

ACCIDENT- HIT & RUN PRIVATE PROPERTY/PERSONAL INJURY | Location: 16000 SOUTHFIELD, ALLEN PARK, MI
Date: 3/30/2024 | Time: N/A

2024-3282
03-30-2024
ACCIDENT- HIT & RUN PRIVATE PROPERTY/PERSONAL INJURY
LOCATION: 16640 Southfield (Roush Lot), Allen Park 48101
VICTIM: Ford Motor Co
VICTIM'S VEHICLE: 2002 Ford Van - White
Minor Rear End Damage
OFFENDER'S VEHICLE: 2006 BMW- Black
DETAILS: Dispatched to 16650 Southfield on 03-30-2024 regarding a Hit & Run Accident with injuries. RIO arrived on scene and a passenger was inside her boss's truck waiting for APFD. The passenger stated she was getting out of the parked transport van that shuttles employees back and forth from Ford lots when the van was struck in the rear end by a Black BMW. Passenger then fell onto the ground with a right leg injury. The Black BMW fled the scene after the incident but the B/M driver may have been attempted contact an employee of either Ford or Roush. The passenger was transported to Corewell Dearborn for a leg injury. The White Ford Van had minor damage to the rear of the bumper and was parked on private property when struck. Any further investigation or questions please contact APPD.
NOTE: Suspect made the police station at approx 5-5:30 am on 03-31-2024 to speak with R/O but R/O was not on duty. Suspect did admit to OIC that he hit a White Van in the parking lot of Roush but was told to leave the scene by a manager at Roush. R/O attempted contact at his place of employment (Roush) but the Manager advised that Suspect was terminated this morning and was not at the location. Manager told RIO that they told him to go to police station on 3-31-2024 (day after the incident when he showed up for work) and that they never told him to leave the scene yesterday. RIO attempted contact with the suspect via Cell but there was no answer. A voicemail was left for to contact R/O on this matter.
FOLLOW-UP: The suspect contacted R/O and gave his version of what happened. The suspect stated he was leaving work and the White Van sideswiped his vehicle while leaving work. He got out of his vehicle, talked to an unknown manager on scene that asked him what he wanted to do. He said he will take pictures of the damage, call his insurance company later cause he had to leave to pick up his daughter. He insisted the White Van struck him but from people on scene and damage to the White Van does not match up with a sideswipe crash. He gave R/O insurance info on his vehicle for the UD-10. There was a citation printed for the suspect for LSPDA (to be mailed if needed) and placed with his paperwork.
