Circumstance:
On the listed date
an Officer was dispatched to the above location for a larceny complaint. On arrival the Officer spoke to building owner/victim, she stated that she

She states that the last

The only person she

Involved Other #2: COMMERCE

48382
Circumstance:
An Officer was dispatched to College Ave for a suspicious complaint. Upon arrival, the Officer spoke with IO #1 and IO #2, who stated they rented a camper from the suspects for the weekend. The transaction took place over Facebook Marketplace. Both IO's stated their friend, VI, placed a $200.00USD
downpayment/security deposit to hold the camper, and as part of the agreement. Officers spoke with her,
over the phone and confirmed she placed a $200.00USD downpayment, she paid through Venmo, to SU #2.
An Officer spoke with the suspect who stated it was a mistake and she double booked the camper, but she had not yet returned the security deposit. They then stated the camper was broken and was currently being repaired in Ludington, MI by her husband,

SU #1.
She told Officers her husband gets paid
on Thursday, July 28, 2022, and the security deposit would be returned then. She was advised security deposits are to be placed into an Escrow Account for if damages occur to the camper. She was advised it is fraud to spend the security deposit for their own personal
gain.
The caller, who wishes to remain anonymous, stated the IO's were making threats such as "If he doesn't come out then his house won't be there much longer". Both IO's denied stating this. There is no evidence at this time the statement was made.
The caller also ad-

inside the house and not in Ludington, MI
repairing the camp-

with this information, and was advised of Obstruction charges.
They confirmed he was inside the residence, and retrieved
him from inside.
Officers spoke with him on the front lawn, where he was advised a report was being taken regarding the matter. He was rambling and not making sense of the situation.

While speaking with them over the phone, she advised ofcs her sister advised her this is approximately the fourth incident where the SU's scammed renters out of the camper and their security deposit this week. It is unknown how they got in contact with or how VII
knows this information. The conversation ended prior to retrieving info to confirm this accusation.
APPD took a walk in complaint regarding this very matter from a separate entity.
The walk in complaint stated he had not tried to contact the SU's yet, but when he arrived at the residence the camper was not there. He was advised to contact APPD regarding the matter if he does not receive the camper or his security deposit back. The walk in complaint has not contacted APPD
at the time this report was competed.

Information:
The victim walked into the APPD lobby on 7-25-2022 to report an ex-neighbor of his, was using his address to secure camper trailer rentals. He came with a couple that had come

they were victims of a fraudulent scheme.
He lived at Meyer

Michigan driver's license saying he lives at Meyer Ave and his actual address of College Ave.
They advised them
that at the moment it was a civil matter.
As time went on, Allen Park PD found out that and had multiple people rent the trailer, and that they didn't actually own

the camper trailer.
They were using a picture of their father's camper trailer to secure multiple camper rentals for the same weekend. Allen Park PD also had Monroe County Sheriff's Deputy contact APPD
and ask for an officer to make contact with them and having them refund an-

was no answer at the door and no vehicles in the driveway of their home at College Ave when the Officer attempted contact on 7-25-22.
With the multiple complaints APPD

received, the Officer went to the home to speak more with him about the fraudulent schemes. He said that two different people came to his house on 7-25-22 looking for their trailer rental.
He did not get any information from them to supplement the report. He showed the Officer a photo of Michigan ID card that had address being Meyer Ave on it.
The ID card was valid from 08-24-2019 until 05-08-2023. He obtained the photo from a couple that came to pick up the trailer rental at his home.
The Officer forwarded
the improper address Michigan ID photo to

ALLEN PARK ATHLETICS

ON THE SIDELINE:

JAMES EARL JONES, ARMY MEN, IDLEWILD AND HISTORY VACATIONS

By Don Richter
drichter101@comcast.net

I was on vacation last week.

It had been over a year and a half since I had any significant vacation time off. Last year at this time I was couch-bound and on crutches with a leg injury. It was not fun.

Last week, however, was fun. Well, I guess it was as fun as any history buff could have. I decided to hit the road and go on a "history tour" of northern Michigan last week.

I know, I'm a loser. Most people take a week off work and go on a cruise to some tropical island location or go to Vegas or overseas to Europe. My old college roommate posted pictures of his vacation with his wife in Italy last week.

Me?

I was in Manistee, Michigan in a random shoe store gazing in awe at the size 37 AA shoes of the world's tallest man, Robert Wadlow. Wadlow passed away in Manistee in 1940. He died of an infection caused by one of his leg braces. Wadlow stood 8-feet, 11 inches. He was 22 when he died. For comparison, Shaquille O'Neal stands at 7-feet, 1-inch and has a shoe size of 23.

While my old college roommate was taking incredible photos of the Sistine Chapel's ceiling, I was removing my shoe and taking a picture of it next to Wadlow's.

I guess art is in the eye of the beholder, right?

Also in Manistee, I visited the Ramsdell Theater. The Ramsdell Theater is where a young James Earl Jones first acted in a play. He actually started at the theater as a stage hand and worked his way up to actor.

After seeing the Ramsdell Theater, I continued on the "James Earl Jones" leg of my "history tour" of northern Michigan. In the tiny town of Brethren, Michigan (about 25 minutes east of Manistee), I visited the now empty, but still standing, Dickson High School — the school Jones graduated from in 1949. It was in Dickson High School where an English teacher helped Jones overcome his stuttering problem by having him read poetry in front of the class. For most of his young life, Jones was a self-imposed mute because of his stutter. I've always thought it was interesting and a bit inspirational that a man known worldwide for his booming, deep voice was, at one point in his life, a mute and a stutterer. Jones is one of only a handful of entertainers to achieve "EGOT" status — winning Emmy, Grammy, Oscar and Tony awards. However, despite all those accolades for his acting ability, he is probably most well-known throughout the world as the voice of Darth Vader in the "Star Wars" movie series.

I also visited Benzononia, Michigan, which is about a half-hour north of Manistee in northwest Michigan. I had to pay homage to Benzonia's most famous resident, Bruce Catton. Catton is widely regarded as one of the country's preeminent Civil War historians. His book, "A Stillness at Appomattox" won Catton a Pulitzer Prize. The local historical museum in Benzonia has a large and impressive display of Catton memorabilia, including his Pulitzer Prize-winning book and the Presidential Medal of Freedom he was awarded a year before he passed away by then President Gerald Ford — a fellow Michigander from Grand Rapids.

While growing up in Benzonia, Catton used to play "army men" with his toy soldiers on Diety Hill in the center of town. The hill is still there. So, of course, I brought a few of my own army men from my youth (no, I don't still play with them — I swear) and held my own mock battle on Diety Hill just like Catton, a personal inspiration of mine, did a little over a century ago.

I next checked off a "bucket list" location on my "history tour" of northern Michigan by visiting Idlewild. Called the "Black Eden," Idlewild was an African-American resort that, in its heyday, saw over 30,000 people living, vacationing and working in this town just east of Baldwin, Michigan. Idlewild's boom years were from 1940 through the 1960s. Idlewild was one of only a handful of places in the country during the years of segregation where African-American families could go to relax, unwind and enjoy the "good life." Idlewild had its own post office, fire department, multiple hotels and restaurants, a sprawling lake, beach and clubhouse and a legendary nightlife. At Idlewild clubs like the Paradise and the Flamingo, entertainers such as B.B. King, Etta James, Cab Calloway, Louie Armstrong, Aretha Franklin, Jackie Wilson, The Four Tops and additional Motown stars among many others performed to packed houses. It was said at the time that Idlewild was a "proving ground" and the "Midwest's Apollo Theater" for African-American entertainers. Nowadays, Idlewild is mainly a ghost town, with the Paradise and Flamingo clubs abandoned and boarded up and the restaurants and hotels all gone. But for anyone who loves history, driving through the town and resort area and past the lake and empty buildings, it's certainly worth the time and the effort to reach such a significant place.

I finished my "history tour" of northern Michigan by visiting St. Helen, the boyhood home of actor Charlton Heston. Just west of West Branch, St. Helen is a one-stoplight town with quite the entertainment history. I found and checked out the tiny, now-closed schoolhouse in town where five-year-old Heston first acted in a Christmas play. Looking at the little stone schoolhouse, it

My army men on Diety Hill in Benzonia, Michigan — the same hill Pulitzer Prize-winning author Bruce Catton played with his army men as a youth over a century ago.

amazed me to think the legendary actor Moses in "The Ten Commandments" and win an Oscar for his performance in "Ben-Hur" first took the stage in such a humble, unassuming building in a small northern Michigan town. I was on vacation last week.

It was fun, for a history buff like me.

It was also too short, time-wise.

I need another week.

Heck, I already need another vacation...

ALLEN PARK'S JAKOB MARSEE SIGNS ON WITH SAN DIEGO PADRES baseball and football and I still work with him to this day.

APG: What does being drafted to the San Diego Padres mean to you?

JM: It's a dream come true. I've always dreamed of getting drafted and playing baseball at the next level. I'm so excited for this opportunity, but it's just the beginning of working towards my goal of reaching the MLB.

APG: Plans for the future?

JM: I will finish my degree while playing over the next couple of years. On top of that, I plan to work towards making the MLB roster.

Congrats again to Jakob on this outstanding accomplishment and best wishes to him in the future!

Allen Park has produced many talented athletes over the years. One such athlete is Jakob Marsee who was recently drafted by the San Diego Padres. Allen Park Guardian recently had the pleasure of speaking with Jakob. Read on to find out more about him and his exciting baseball career!

Allen Park Guardian: Provide some background information on you, sports played, for how long, etc.

Jakob Marsee: I was born in Dearborn and moved to Allen Park in the 3rd grade. My parents are Shannon and Ken and I have two brothers Mason who is 12 and Tyler who is 23. I played baseball, basketball, and football every year until I graduated high school. I played baseball at Central Michigan University for three years while pursuing a degree in general business administration.

APG: How did playing sports at Allen Park High School prepare you for college and beyond?

JM: Playing sports while at Allen Park High School taught me a couple things such as teamwork, leadership, hard work, and to manage time between school and sports.

APG: What is your favorite thing about playing baseball?

JM: I just love the game and have so much fun doing it. The relationships I have built through it as well is amazing and I love competing.

APG: Favorite memories of playing baseball and best friends on the team?

JM: Winning the MAC two times while at CMU and going to two different regionals and winning games there. I have had a ton of amazing memories though starting when I was playing travel ball at a young age. My whole team is my family so it's hard to choose, but Kade Preston, Nick Dardas, Drew Alsbrooks, and Garrett Navarra just to name a few.

APG: Biggest accomplishments so far: stats, records, awards won etc.

JM: First team all

Mac, all Mac defensive team, and all Mac tournament team. These were some of the cool ones from this year, but honestly winning championships with my team tops any award I've gotten.

APG: Favorite coaches and mentors?

JM: I've had so many coaches that have helped me become the person I am today from my dad to my college coaches to choose a favorite would be unfair to the rest. Bobby Marten is the coach that has helped me become the hitter/player I am today. I started working with him junior year of high school where he coached me in both

Culver's Awards Scholarships to Cabrini Schools

Simona Garcia from Cabrini Elementary School won a $750 scholarship from Allen Park Culver's owner Jerry Olinik. Photos By Jim Jacek.

Lilah Bermudez from Cabrini High School won a $1000 scholarship from Allen Park Culver's owner Jerry Olinik.

From: Jim Jacek
Cabrini Schools held their spring share night in April. Culver's of Allen Park generously donated $500 plus a percentage of sales. The result was $1000 scholarship for a high school student and $750 for elementary school. The students were required to write an essay on what it means to serve others, and Culver's managers selected the winning essays. The high school scholarship went to Lilah Bermudez and the elementary school scholarship went to Simona Garcia. Congratulations to both of you!
