WILLIE NELSON, OMELETTES, HANNIBAL LECTER AND FRANKENMUTH

By Don Richter
drichter101@comcast.net

On the road again. Just can't wait to get on the road again.

With all due respect to the legendary Willie Nelson, who wrote and sang the above two lines in his hit single "On The Road Again," I have been living the life of a touring music performer the past few weeks.

I've been traveling all over southeast Michigan for my job these past few weeks, plus at the same time going out to the west side of the state for a get-together with a group of longtime friends and driving up to Frankenmuth for a couple days to spend time with family.

Whew.

It's been quite the few weeks behind the wheel.

Visiting Frankenmuth, though, I must say, was an interesting, enjoyable and very culinary satisfying experience. What a cool place. I hadn't been up there in probably close to 40 years. Dang, that makes me sound old. But in all actuality, it really had been that long of a time between visits to Frankenmuth for yours truly.

I need to go back more often.

First off, the touristy section of the city where I stayed and spent all of my time was one of the most colorful, sumptuous, decadent, overflowing flower-filled feasts for the eyes I have ever witnessed. The whole scene felt as if I was on some sort of Disney set or cast in a 1950s-era movie.

The downtown area of Frankenmuth was so perfect looking. I expected to look over my shoulder and see Jimmy Stewart and Donna Reed walking arm-in-arm down the sidewalk (kids, Google them).

I stayed at the gorgeous Bavarian Inn downtown. The hotel is smack dab in the middle of everything and looks like it should be located in the Swiss Alps instead of mid-Michigan.

While "Frankie," as my sister calls Frankenmuth, is a feast for the eyes, it's also certainly and without doubt a feast for the stomach. I swear I gained 10 pounds during the two days I spent in the "Muth," as I call it.

One of the largest meals I had in Fran-kenmuth was a chicken dinner (is there anything else?) at Zehnder's Restaurant. World famous for their chicken dinners, continued on page 8

Pumpkin Patch 34th Year on Park Avenue!

It's not a bore, it's 34!

This tradition has been happening for 34 years!

Time flies!! We are preparing for the yearly Allen Park Elks PUMPKIN PATCH. Our PUMPKIN PATCH is a jewel of the downriver area and we can only succeed with the generous and dedicated help of our neighbors, volunteers, sponsors, and of course, the thousands of participants.

The Elks PUMPKIN PATCH originated as a small simple function and has grown into the extravaganza that is today. It is a premiere multi community event that offers a safe family oriented entertaining program with Creepy Clyde as the outside performer to be enjoyed by all. Inside the Elks hall is a private party for many special needs individuals with their families and care givers.

We ask for your generosity, a contribution of $50-$100 in funds (more or less depending on your ability), food, materials, or giveaway prizes. If you have little trinkets with your business name, we will be happy to pass them out. Drop off your "giveaways" to McNally Shoes. Your business will be included on our Pumpkin Patch supporters list seen throughout the area. Also your contribution is "tax deductible." Your support is appreciated! Please make your checks payable to BPOE Elks #2194 Memo on the check: Elks Pumpkin Patch C/O Mark Bailey @ McNally Shoes 6621 Park Avenue, Allen Park MI 48101

Inside the Elks Hall, the party has provided many Downriver physically and mentally challenged people and their families who have enjoyed this function immensely and look forward to a night of fun, music, food, dancing and treats. This is what Elks do, and it is a cherished event for everyone involved.

Thank you in advance for your gracious contributions. With your support, the Allen Park Elks are able to contribute a Safe Halloween Experience for the Downriver community. If you have any questions please call Mark @ McNally Shoes 313-382-4258 or email us at allenpark2194@mielks.org.

Sincerely yours,

ON THE SIDELINE: WILLIE NELSON, OMELETTES, HANNIBAL LECTER AND FRANKENMUTH

continued from page 4 Zehnder's did not disappoint. Oh man, I couldn't stop eating. The food was so delicious. To make me stop inhaling pieces of chicken after pieces of chicken after pieces of chicken, etc., the staff at Zehnder's was forced to take drastic measures. Like Hannibal Lecter, in the movie "Silence of the Lambs," the waitstaff at Zehnder's had to place a mask over my mouth and strap me to a dolly and wheel me out of the restaurant before finally releasing me to my family waiting outside by the car. Sadly, I don't think I'm allowed to return.

On my last day in the "Muth," I stopped in to check out Bronner's. Dubbed as one of the largest, year-round Christmas-themed attractions in the world, Bronner's certainly lived up to that boast. With temperatures outside in the 80s and blue, sunny skies above, the atmosphere of Bronner's still felt like Christmas in December as Christmas tunes blared throughout the parking lot and inside the place itself. With every conceivable Christmas decoration and themed item imaginable lining upon shelves upon shelves in a football-field sized building, Bronner's was amazing.

On the way home, just before turning onto the freeway, I decided after all the walking I did at Bronner's that I was hungry. I gazed to my right and saw the sign for Tony's Restaurant. I had completely forgotten that Tony's was nearby Frankenmuth in the neighboring town of Birch Run. I had eaten there multiple times before returning from other trips not associated with "Frankie." Tony's is known statewide for its LARGE SERVINGS of food. And I mean LARGE. So LARGE that my farmer's omelette was made with NINE EGGS. The omelette was as large as a couch pillow. After getting over the initial shock and awe of the mammoth monstrosity of an omelette heavily plopped down in front of me, I proceeded to deavour it completely in a fairly easy fashion. I haven't yet figured out what that actually says about me.

Either way, it's been a crazy, fun-filled whirlwind of a few weeks recently.

On the road again. Just can't wait to get on the road again.

I just need a nap first.

And a larger pair of jeans...

The super-sized, nine-egg omelette at Tony's Restaurant.
