Dearborn Heights Police arrest 5 suspects in stolen vehicle following short chase

Escape attempt ends when driver causes injury accident in Dearborn

Photo of the 9mm handgun recovered from suspects during the April 10 stolen car/fleeing and eluding incident in Dearborn. Police also recovered a taser from the suspects. A total of 5 suspects were taken into custody after they crashed into 2 vehicles during their escape attempt.

Just after 4pm on April 10, 2023, Dearborn Heights Police Officers attempted to stop a stolen vehicle on east-bound Michigan Avenue near Outer Drive. During the attempt, the operator of the stolen vehicle attempted to flee police officers who were driving fully-marked Dearborn Heights police vehicles. The driver attempted to turn north onto Oakwood Blvd and struck two other motorists in the City of Dearborn - both of whom sustained non-life-threatening injuries. Police Officers arrested five (5) suspects who were inside the stolen vehicle. Two (2) were transported to an area hospital with suspected non-life-threatening injuries. Officers recovered a loaded 9mm handgun with an extended magazine (see photo) and a Taser from the suspects' stolen vehicle. The suspects are 15-18 years old and reside in Michigan and North Dakota.

Police Chief Jerrod S. Hart stated "Like many communities, we are experiencing a spike in motor vehicle thefts and our residents are understandably frustrated. The thefts negatively impact our residents' quality of life and ability to earn a living." Chief Hart continued "I would like to thank the women and men of Dearborn Police and Fire Departments for their assistance in this incident. Law enforcement is a team effort with criminals crossing jurisdictional lines to prey on our community members."

NATIVE RESIDENT TIMOTHY ESTHEIMER SEEKS SEAT ON ALLEN PARK CITY COUNCIL

From: Robert McLachlan

Estheimer, who is married (Nicole, a teacher) and has two children (Jake, 13, and Jillian, 11) brings a variety of experience to the post when elected. Tim and his family are active members of the St. Frances Cabrini Church, and Tim owns Primo's Pizza here in Allen Park.

Estheimer had served on the Allen Park DDA (Downtown Development Authority), serving twice as its' Chair. During that tenure, he helped bring about the revitalization of the downtown area with the extensive work on the streetscape designs for Allen Road and Park Avenue, substantially improving the parking areas. Tim also chaired the committee that brought "Third Thursday" events to fruition, as well as significant work and support of the Farmers Market.

Estheimer served six years on the Southgate Board of Education (the south end of Allen Park is located in the Southgate School District), holding the offices of Secretary, Vice President, and 2 years as President. His leadership helped bring trust back to the community, by the successful passage of a bond issue, restoring bussing to students, and making major improvements to all school buildings.

Estheimer currently serves as Chairman of the Allen Park Planning and Zoning Commission, as well as Chair of the Local Officers Compensation Board.

Tim says, "I am running for a seat on the City Council to help maintain the vibrant community we have. I am fiscally responsible, with leadership experience, as shown by my record. Council needs to focus on building up the community, figuratively and literally, while maintaining financial integrity. As a successful business owner in the city, where my business has more than tripled since purchasing, I understand the complexities of operating a business. I recognize the importance and value that our public safety employees have in our community. I am committed to partnering with this community to support our local residents and businesses. I would appreciate your support in this partnership."

ALLEN PARK ATHLETICS

ON THE SIDELINE: EASTER, TIGER BASEBALL, BOAT RIDES AND PURPLE PEEPS

By Don Richter
drichter101@comcast.net

Happy Easter.
I hope everyone had a nice Easter weekend.
How 'bout this weather, huh? It seems like I blinked and we went from 20 degree nighttime weather a week or so ago to high 70s this week.
I have a friend who lives Up North. To show how crazy Michigan weather can be, she told me it snowed at her house this past weekend, while later this week it's supposed to reach 80 degrees. I know, tell me something I don't know. It's Michigan, am I right? No surprise at all.

This past week I witnessed an event that has always signaled the beginning of warm temperatures and sunnier skies. While driving on Old US-12 just west of Freer Road, I saw hundreds of youngsters practicing softball and soccer on the athletic fields nearby.
I can't tell you how happy that made me. Seeing the kids running around playing sports out in the bright sunshine was a breath of fresh air for me. Every year when it's dark, cold and snowy outside, I drive past those same athletic fields, empty of activity, yearning for the days when it's warm and clear-skied. Now it appears those summer days are drawing nearer and nearer.
That makes me smile.
What also brings a big, ole grin to my face is the start of the Detroit Tigers baseball season. It's so nice just sitting back, relaxing and watching a Tiger ballgame. Even though so far this year Detroit hasn't had a very good beginning to its season, my spirit and mood always seem to improve once the umpire yells "Play ball!" The onset of a new Major League Baseball campaign always imbues me with a sense of hopefulness and a surge of positive energy. Now if the Tigers could just start consistently winning, everything in my world would be pretty darn

Another hint the weather is turning here in Michigan is the moment earlier this week when my sister and brother-in-law took their boat out for its first “spin” or “lap” around the lake. My sister and brother-in-law are lucky enough to live year round on a lake. I’m so envious. The closest I come to living near a lake is after a hard rain a portion of my neighbor’s backyard floods or when/if the sewer grates out front of my house clog up forming a miniature pool outside my front door. The views are amazing (not). But for my sister and brother-in-law, they wake up to beautiful sunrises and go to bed watching jaw-dropping sunsets. Now those are truly beautiful views. Did I mention I’m jealous?

I did? Oh well, let me say it again — I’m jealous. With spring now seemingly fully sprung, it means inside cleaning and outside work and landscaping here at the magnificent and lavish Richter Castle.

My “To Do” list is long and varied. For starters, I need patchwork done on my roof, outdoor shutters installed on my windows, mounds and mounds of lava rock dumped on my multiple beds, five boxwood shrubs bought and planted, shed painted, driveway repaved, flower pots hung, marigolds lined up and displayed and mower tuned up and ready to go. And that’s just the chores for this upcoming weekend. I’m kidding. I’ll be lucky to accomplish half of those aforementioned “To Do” list items before fall rolls in and I break out my trusty rake. Either way, Happy Easter everyone. Or is it, “Hoppy” Easter. Sorry, I had to say it — it simply had to be done. Don’t judge me too harshly. I just finished an entire box of purple peeps. Yes, purple. I’m currently a little loopy. And earlier today, I inhaled a “peep cupcake.” It was delicious. I will now be up for an entire week...
